Sir,

Why isn't this staff sargeant (Whatever his name) who went A.W.O.L. and who refused to join his unit in Iraq, in Jail ?

What the hell is happening to this country ? Don't we even have any control over our troops, or do we just lay down to the whims of this liberal society we now appear to live in ?

Many people join the Services in peace time for what they can get out of them, but when it comes time to pay up they object.

WELL NOW I AM OBJECTING. In WW11 I served aboard the U.S.S. Bismarck Sea, CVE 95. we were sunk by two Kamikasis with off of Iwo Jima with a loss of 230 men. I was in the water for four hours (AT NIGHT) and was awfully lucky to be picked up by one of our Destroyers,

I do not ordinarily spout off about my war experiences, like some of our politicians, but I AM PROUD OF MY COUNTRY AND CONSIDER IT A PRIVILEGE TO LIVE HERE AND TO SERVE HER!!!!

I therefore ask you to look into this matter. This person has thumbed his nose at this country and if he gets away with it there will be many more to follow.

Centerville, MA 02632

Thank You
